- 2 When a person is approached in connection with his or her possible appointment as an arbitrator, he or she shall conduct a reasonable investigation into any circumstances which may, in the eyes of the Parties, give rise to justifiable doubts as to his or her impartiality or independence. appointment of an arbitrator without giving reasons if the JCAA finds that the appointment is clearly inappropriate.

- 7 Upon confirming the appointment of the arbitrator, the JCAA shall promptly notify such confirmation to the Parties and the arbitrator(s).

Notwithstanding any such agreement of the Parties, where any Party fails to appoint a co-arbitrator, the other co-arbitrator appointed by a Party or Parties shall not communicate ex parte with the Party or Parties who appointed that arbitrator to discuss the appointment of the third arbitrator.
- 6 If the co-arbitrators fail to notify the JCAA of such appointment of the third arbitrator under Article 25.4 within the time limit under Article 28.4, the JCAA shall appoint such arbitrator.

In such case, the JCAA may appoint the arbitrator already appointed by the claimant(s) or the respondent(s) as one of the three arbitrators, if no Party raises an objection.

 - (2) there is a reasonable possibility that the requesting Party will succeed on the merits of the claim.

If he or she discovers such circumstances, he or she shall decline to accept an appointment or disclose in writing such circumstances to the JCAA.
